

When comparing a Perfectly Competitive Market to a Monopoly, one of the main differences is that the monopoly does not operate at ALLOCATIVE EFFICIENCY, which means a monopoly does allow a DEADWEIGHT LOSS. Can you identify the triangle that represents the deadweight loss for the monopoly below?

